SEPTEMBER 20-24, 2021

Grades 6-12

September 20

POETRY IN AMERICA

- WHITMAN – LEAVES OF GRASS
  Sensitive: These resources contain materials that may be sensitive for some students.
  - Walt Whitman | Journalist and Poet
    - Lesson plan
  - Walt Whitman: Understanding LGBTQ+ Identity Collection
  - A Passage to India, by Walt Whitman

MUHAMMAD ALI ROUND ONE: THE GREATEST (1942-1964)

- Muhammad Ali | Boxer and Civil Rights Activist
  - Lesson plan
  - Ken Burns in the Classroom: Muhammad Ali

September 21

WEDU ARTS PLUS Episode 442 (Full episode)
Watch Preview
The Tampa Taiko ensemble performs the art of Japanese drumming, a fascinating history of art looted during World War II, a chainsaw acts as one artist’s instrument of choice, and exquisite textiles from the past get a new life.

- Hana's Japanese Drums
- Masterpieces Uncovered in Munich after 70 Years in Hiding
- Wooden Animals: Minnie Adkins

WEDU QUEST Episode 211 (Full episode)
Watch Preview
Mote Marine Labs in Sarasota helps protects sea turtles through research and medical treatment. Mirrors are used to trick the brain to eliminate pain. Textures inspired by shark skin are being used to control bacteria in hospitals. Leaders take a big leap to increase college graduation rates in Hillsborough County.

- Nature | Cuba: The Accidental Eden - Sea Turtles
- Mirror Therapy: Trick the Nervous System to Help People Heal
- Rapid Evolution: Change in Real-Time | NOVA Wonders: What’s Living in You?

WEDU PBS At-Home Learning is presented by

- Monroe E. and Suzette M. Berkman Family Foundation
  at the Community of Foundation of Tampa Bay

September 22

IN THE NAME OF PEACE: JOHN HUME IN AMERICA
- Northern Ireland Peace Talks | Women, War & Peace II
- Pursuing Peace: Women and Conflict in Northern Ireland | Women, War & Peace II

- Ken Burns in the Classroom: Muhammad Ali

September 23

WEDU ARTS PLUS Episode 214 (Full episode)

Watch Preview

Take a journey with filmmakers who sought to capture the spirit of the Hammond organ, see where dress-making intersects with the art of welding, an artist travels back to the early 1900s to perfect the craft of photography, and a near-tragedy gives this painter a new outlook on art.

- Video Production: Behind the Scenes with the Pros
- Wil Blades: Music (Jazz)
- Through the Lens: Imaging Santa Fe
- Using Color to Create Emphasis

WEDU QUEST Episode 106 (Full episode)

Watch Preview

In this episode of WEDU Quest, see how marine scientists are developing new ways to count fish, tour the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, see the St. Louis sewer system get a makeover, and explore the developmental education in Florida's college system.

- C-BASS: Revolutionizing Fish and Ocean Habitat Management
- Satellite Imagery and Biodiversity | Life from Above
- Greening Waste Treatment
- Educators Guide: Hockey Sticks | DragonflyTV

- Ken Burns in the Classroom: Muhammad Ali

MUHAMMAD ALI ROUND FOUR: THE SPELL REMAINS (1974-2016)
- Ken Burns in the Classroom: Muhammad Ali

WEDU PBS At-Home Learning is presented by
September 24
Sensitive: These resources contain materials that may be sensitive for some students.

CAN WE TALK: ANTI-SEMITISM
- Responding to Growing Domestic Terrorism Amid California Synagogue Shooting | PBS NewsHour
- The Holocaust through Children’s Eyes | The Last Survivors
- My Survivor Collection

VIRAL: ANTI-SEMITISM IN FOUR MUTATIONS
- Responding to Violence in a Pittsburgh Synagogue | PBS NewsHour
- Murals of the Holocaust Collection

A CALL TO REMEMBER
- Auschwitz: Inside the Nazi State
- Honoring a Young Victim 76 Years after the Holocaust | The Last Survivors